Philadelphia Flower Show Passport to the World

(Ages: 6 to Adult) Spend the weekend with us in Philadelphia. Friday afternoon enjoy the many historic sites and museums in the center of town on your own, and then Saturday spend the day at one of the most famous Flower Shows on the East Coast. With plenty of time on your own to explore Philadelphia, you can see what you want to see at your pace. This year's show is Philadelphia –The 2010 Philadelphia Flower Show will treat visitors to an exotic journey with the theme, Passport to the World, opening February 28 to March 7 at the Pennsylvania Convention Center.

The Show will transport visitors to dozens of destinations covering the globe. Among the most impressive will be India, a land of colors, textures, scents and sounds that will come to life amid a shower of flowers in an Indian wedding scene. The Netherlands, with its rainbow of blooms, will be portrayed in a floating flower market filled with over 100,000 blooms. The natural wonders of South Africa will be captured in flowers that depict the vivid colors and patterns of costumes of the Zulu. The Amazon jungle of Brazil will unfold in an otherworldly canopy of sparkling waterfalls, tropical flora and exotic wildlife. Singapore, the "Pearl of Asia" will be presented in a luminescent tribute to the orchid, and New Zealand, a rugged land of beauty, will explode with color and imagination inspired by the wild flora and traditions of the Maori.

Guests will be treated to daily internationally-inspired dance and musical performances, a World Bazaar of exotic and decorative shops, as well as an International Wine and Spirit Garden in the Show's Grand Hall.

Deposit of $100 to reserve your spot, with the balance due by 1/29/10. Cancellation deadline 2/2/10.
